A large, sunlit courtyard at the University of Vienna. In the foreground, a woman with long dark hair, wearing a white tank top, blue jeans, and red shoes, sits on the grass, looking at her phone. Behind her, many other people are sitting on the grass, some in groups, some alone. The background features a grand, classical building with large columns and arches, surrounded by lush green trees. The sky is clear and blue.

Studying at the University of Vienna means studying at one of the most renowned universities in the heart of Europe. ## Why study in Vienna?

Not only the University, but also the city of Vienna has a long historical tradition with its famous sights. Today Vienna is the city with the highest quality of life worldwide. Apart from many places of interest, Vienna offers a broad range of leisure time facilities. There are many places for recreation that one can enjoy off-campus.

The University of Vienna is the oldest university in the German-speaking world and one of the largest in Central Europe. Thus, with more than 170 courses and about 94,000 students as well as staff of 9,600 employees, it is also the largest educational and scientific institution in Austria.

The University's Postgraduate Center offers a wide range of Advanced Postgraduate Programs. Students may choose from about 50 master programs in the fields of »Education & Social Care«, »Health & Natural Sciences«, »International Affairs & Business«, »Communication & Media« and »Law«. In addition, the university offers tailor-made corporate programs targeted at the goals and specific needs of organizations. All professional education programs of the University of Vienna are adjusted to the specific demands of professional life and aim at providing an interdisciplinary approach. Students will learn to understand how related scientific disciplines are interconnected with their specific fields of expertise. The Postgraduate Center is also active in the Austrian and international discourse on lifelong learning.
