

Ülar Mark (born 12 February 1968) is an Estonian architect.

He graduated from the Department of Architecture of the Tallinn University of Art (today's Estonian Academy of Arts) in 1995.

From 1999 to 2002 Ülar Mark worked as the chief architect of the city of Narva. Since 2002, Mark has worked in the architectural bureau Urban Mark OÜ urbanmark.net.

Ülar Mark is a member of the Union of Estonian Architects and from 2006 to 2007 was the chairman of the union. From 2009 to 2013 Ülar Mark worked as the chairman of the Estonian Center of Architecture.

Notable works by Ülar Mark are the gallery of the Bank of Estonia, and the Tallink Spa Hotel. In addition, Ülar Mark has designed numerous urban and planning projects as well as done theatre design at the Estonian National Opera.

Since 2016, Mark has been partnering with offsite factory Kodasema.com and kodea.eu for creating sustainable module units for making change in the construction industry.

Mark has been in a long-term relationship with singer and actress Kärt Tomingas for many years. The couple has a daughter, Roberta, and currently live in Lääne-Viru County. Mark also has a son Ailan Daniel from a previous marriage.