

European and International Business Law

INVITATION TO THE ONLINE INFO EVENT ON 07. MAY 2024

The focus of the master's program is the internationally operating company and its legal status in the European internal market and in international trade. Against this background, there is a wide range of professional training to become a commercial lawyer with a European and international orientation.

The LL.M. program is offered full-time regular (2 semesters), full-time flexible (4 semesters) and part-time (3 semesters). The full-time variants are in-class programs, while the part-time variant is completely online.
