

2019-2020 Call for Applications from Incoming Stanford Students for a Tuition Scholarship for the LLM Program in European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna

Stanford University and the University of Vienna are devoted to excellence in education and research. Over the past few decades, both institutions have developed an outstanding and sustainable collaboration in many different academic disciplines and areas.

In particular, Stanford Law School and University of Vienna's LLM Program in European and International Business Law share a common interest in promoting mutual study opportunities for their students in European, U.S., and international business law, and have developed an internationally unique and longstanding tradition in collaborating in these fields in many different forms of education and research, which are highly respected in the international academic and professional community.

University of Vienna's LLM Program in European and International Business Law will provide up to two scholarships for tuition payments for incoming students from Stanford Law School in the academic year 2019-2020 who wish to further their legal education in European and international business law by enrolling in the LLM program in European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna. The University of Vienna may even provide more than two scholarships, if the necessary funds are secured.

University of Vienna's LLM Program in European and International Business Law invites students from Stanford Law School to submit scholarship applications for the academic year 2019-2020, in line with the following requirements and procedure:

I. General Requirements

1. This call for scholarship applications is limited to students currently enrolled at Stanford Law School.
2. Applicants must have a record of outstanding academic performance in exams and academic papers.

II. Application and Required Documents

1. Completed application form (please use the attached application form)
2. CV
3. Personal statement indicating the applicant's professional qualifications and career plans, including a statement of reasons for enrolling in the LLM Program in European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna (maximum of two pages)
4. Admission to the LLM program in European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna
5. Transcripts from Stanford Law School and from other universities attended

III. Award

1. The top ranked candidates will receive a full tuition scholarship (EUR 11,900) for the LLM Program in European and International Business Law.
2. Decisions will be made by the Selection Committee of the LLM Program in European and International Business Law.
3. Applicants will be informed about the decision of the Selection Committee by e-mail after the review process, at the latest on April 26, 2019.
4. One semester after the start of the LLM program, a transcript of the LLM program and proof of on-site presence must be presented in writing.
5. There is no age limit.
6. The award of any scholarships is at the discretion of the scholarship granting institution.

IV. Application Deadline

The application deadline is March 29, 2019. All applications shall be submitted as a single pdf document to Dr. Maria Sturm, Program Manager LLM Program in European and International Business Law, by e-mail to maria.sturm@univie.ac.at.

Incomplete applications and applications submitted after the application deadline will not be considered.

V. Selection Criteria

1. Academic performance
2. Professional qualifications and personal statement

VI. Selection Procedure

- Applicants will be ranked based on the criteria laid out in section V., taking into account the available scholarship funds.
 - Decisions will be made by the Selection Committee of the LLM Program in European and International Business Law.
-

To
LLM Program in European and International Business Law
University of Vienna
Universitätsring 1
1010 Vienna, Austria

Scholarship to Support LL.M. Studies (Tuition) (Incoming Stanford Students)

Application Deadline: March 29, 2019

Personal Data

Austrian Student Identification Number (if available):	Academic Degree(s):
Last Name:
First Name:	Middle Name:
Date of Birth (DD.MM.YYYY):	Austrian Social Security Number (if available):
Address: Street, Street no.:
ZIP, Postal Code:	City:
Country:
Phone:	E-Mail:

Information About The Program

Please indicate the name of the university program for which this scholarship application is submitted (name according to the student record sheet/"Studienblatt"):

LLM Program in European and International Business Law

Program identification number (according to the student record sheet/"Studienblatt"): A 992548

Bank Account Information

Bank:
Bank Address:
Account Holder:
BIC/SWIFT or RTN:	IBAN:

Necessary documents

Please attach to this scholarship application the required documents according to the 2019-2020 Call for Applications from Incoming Stanford Students for a Tuition Scholarship for the LLM Program in European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna.

Please sign this scholarship application form and submit it together with the necessary documents as one single pdf document to Dr. Maria Sturm, Program Manager LL.M. Program in European and International Business Law, by e-mail to maria.sturm@univie.ac.at.

Applicant's Signature

I hereby confirm that all the information above is correct.

Date

Signature