

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Nino Tomaschek

Person:

- born 1976
- married, three children
- Austrian

Education:

- Habilitation in Philosophy of Science, University of Augsburg, Germany
- Studied Philosophy, German Philology and Sociology at the University of Vienna, Austria
- as well as International Human Resource Management and Organization Development at the PEF-Private University in Vienna, Austria and at Ashridge Management College in London, UK
- trained in Systemic Coaching, Project Management, Psychotherapy

Profession:

- Director of the Postgraduate Center, University of Vienna, Austria (since 2008)
- Adjunct Associate Professor of the University of Nicosia, Cyprus (seit 2017)
- Visiting lecturer at the EBS-University for Economics and Right, Oestrich-Winkel (since 2014)
- Member of the Supervisory Board of Rolf Schulz HR Consultants AG, Baden-Baden, Germany (since 2008)
- President of AUCEN (Austrian University Continuing Education and Staff Development Network) (2012-2015)
- Founder of sevensix-Corporate Research and Consulting Institute, Vienna (2008-2013)
- Visiting Professor and Senior Research Director, Flensburgschool for Advanced Research Studies, University of Flensburg, Germany (2008-2012)
- Director of an Executive MBA-program and founder of `Brain-Trust: international research center for Systemic Organization Development and Consulting´ at the University of Augsburg, Germany (2003-2008)
- Lecture and research activities (eg. University College Dublin, Ireland; Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore/Washington D.C., USA; Peking University, China) (2004-2008)
- Associate Professor (“Privatdozent”) for Philosophy of Science, University of Augsburg, Germany
- Co-founder of the Augsburg School of Innovation-Coaching
- Coach, Consultant, Keynote-Speaker, Author

Main Areas:

- Management Development, Executive Education, Lifelong Learning
- Organizational Development, Change Management, Coaching